SECOND GRADER WINS CITY HOLIDAY CARD CONTEST

Castroville, TX, December 13, 2016– Mayor Gardner presented second grader Slate Crisp of Castroville Elementary with a certificate of excellence for his outstanding artwork which was selected to be the face of the 2016 City of Castroville Holiday Card. The Mayor noted that Slate’s artwork would make him a famous local artist as the cards will reach several different locales around south central Texas.

The certificate was presented to the youngster after a dress rehearsal of the Polar Express holiday play. In attendance were friends, classmates, teachers, Principal Kendall Center, City Administrator Marie Gelles and Castroville Public Librarian Christina Reedy.
